Public: Opportunities abound with this beautiful home located two blocks from the Carmel Mission. An oversized, 9500 SF lot is rare indeed in Carmel-by-the Sea, where most lots are 4000 SF. This early 50's home is in good shape with 3 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms and can be immediately enjoyed by the new owners. The opportunity to do modest surface remodeling is enhanced by existing hardwood floors and a kitchen that has enjoyed a remodel in the past. The home boasts a circular driveway, large gardens and is surrounded by magnificent oaks. Additionally, this neighborhood will support a medium scale renovation or a completely new luxury home. The lot and water fixtures could likely support a guest house, 2-car garage, exquisite new home with the over 3200 SF as allowed by planning guidelines.

Public: Come quick to see this golden opportunity down a long driveway on a quiet cul-de-sac in the Carmel Unified School District. This has been home to just one family in almost 60 years! Bring your ideas and enhance this property to fit your needs. The current configuration has two bedrooms, each with a full bath in the main house. Pretty outlooks from many windows. A cozy fireplace in the living room with a deck outside. There is also an attached separate unit with a full bath, a kitchenette and its own private deck. With a few relatively easy modifications you could turn this back into a three-bedroom home, which would have three full baths! Charming gardens in front lend a magical feel, which could be opened up to provide a play area, or a special secluded spot for reading or quiet conversation. A two-car garage completes the picture. A truly nice place to call home!
