Public:Casa Margarita, with Spanish Revival architecture, was named by an iconic local celebrity who was a frequent guest of this stunning estate. Gorgeous setting overlooking the Pacific Ocean with expansive views of Point Lobos, and Stillwater Cove. The estate was constructed during the era when homes were meticulously designed like the great estates in the Mediterranean. Casa Margarita stands out with an elegant presence in Pebble Beach. Close to The Lodge of Pebble Beach with its many amenities, the home is within the reknowned Carmel School district as well as close proximity to Robert Louis Stevenson, a private world class school. Sited on 1.6+ acres the home is quite private with a gently rising driveway to the motor court with additional entry to the separate 800 sf guest house. With six generous sized bedrooms and 6 1/2 baths the estate provides exceptional living space. A pool set amidst newly landscaped grounds provides another amenity to this classic Pebble estate.
