

Congratulations to Nicole Truszkowski

OUR #1 PRODUCING
ASSOCIATE FOR 2019

Sotheby's
INTERNATIONAL REALTY

We are proud to recognize Nicole Truszkowski as our top producing associate for 2019.

A veteran real estate broker with 23 years of experience, Nicole brings a vibrant energy and powerful sales skill set to give her impressive client list exemplary service and dedication. She is blessed with strong negotiation and communications skills, tenacious follow through, creative marketing strategies, and a passion for employing the absolute latest in technology. Nicole is the local expert on luxurious lifestyle with a discerning eye for quality interior design and architecturally significant properties.

Nicole is a Certified Luxury Home Marketing Specialist (CHLMS) and a Certified International Property Specialist (CIPS). She has been recognized in the Wall Street Journal and Barron's, as well as numerous publications on the Monterey Peninsula. A graduate of the University of Alberta, Nicole is uniquely qualified to facilitate residential real estate transactions north of our border, as well as in countries across the globe.

She has an amazing dedication to customer service and is known for her integrity, enthusiasm, absolute discretion and high standards of professionalism. With a naturally intuitive way with people, Nicole has a unique ability to exceed her client's expectations. Her greatest reward is receiving referrals from past clients as their recommended, trusted, Realtor of choice.

831.238.7449 | EstatesofCarmel.com | DRE: 01240204

A Selection of Significant Properties

Sophisticated Pebble Beach Estate
$28,500,000

Lavender Oaks
$4,395,000

Rare Offering on Carmel Point
$4,250,000