Public: Asilomar State Park - a must-see destination in Pacific Grove - is known as Monterey Peninsula's "Refuge by the Sea." Just blocks from Asilomar is another refuge - 513 Crocker Avenue - a private residence meant for relaxing & recharging. French doors throughout the home connect you w/ surrounding natural beauty as abundant light streams through skylights. The heart of the house is the kitchen/dining area where guests lounge or congregate around the spacious island. Cooks & bakers will appreciate the pro Wolf range/stove. The 4th bedroom is currently being enjoyed as a media room - there's also a more intimate family room w/ fireplace. Multiple conversation areas indoors & out. Walking trails are adjacent to the 1/2 acre property & it's just a short jaunt to the ocean for some of the most spectacular sunsets you've ever seen! Pacific Grove, aka "America's Last Hometown," offers a sense of community, a charming downtown with shops & eateries & is the winter home to Monarch butterflies.

Public: The city of Pacific Grove is a quaint town brimming with neighborhoods lined with charming homes. Passersby often stop and comment on the charm of this home, not realizing there are secret gardens and winding paths on the double, street-to-alley lot. The charm begins with the exterior paint colors and dormers and continues with the stone fireplace and lath/plaster interior walls. Grand oak trees, architectural camellias, and benches to relax are sprinkled around the property - all touched by the master gardener who brought it to life. The garage, gardening workshop, & brick-paved carport are accessed from the equally charming alley where neighbors often chat & kids play. Looking for more space? Explore the renovated attic that enjoys a wonderful treetop view of the neighborhood - see photos. The 3 BR 2 BA main home is complimented by an attached, permitted 1 BR 1BA ADU with vaulted ceiling & fireplace & its own furnace, water heater, gas meter, unfinished basement area, laundry & deck.
